A NUMBER of papers in Ohio that at the opening of the campaign boasted of their independence, have recently placed the Republican ticket at the head of their editorial columns. The temptation of Federal patronage was too strong for their principles.

MERCY, but the Independent and Republican speakers are going for each other with a vengeance. Gor-HAM is swinging his ponderous battle axe with a careless indifference to consequences that has made Senator BOOTH extremely cautious about getting within its reach.

GEO. C. GORHAM has challenged Senator Booth to a public discussion, and the Senator does not respond. BOOTH is a polished scholar and a smooth speaker but in rough and ready debate, he is not the equal of GORHAM.

FITCH says he does not know that the Southern Pacific Railroad willever be completed between this city and San Francisco. The Company say the road will be in operation in one year from to-day. Here is a question of veracity between a responsible corportion and an individual whose reputation for lying is better than that of BARON MUNCHAUSEN.

THIS is the way the Stockton Leader estimates: 110,000 yotes will be cast at the coming election, divided thus; Lover, Temperance, 5,000; BIDWELL, "Dolly Varden" Radical, 20,000; PHELPS, regular Radical, 25,-000, IRWIN, Democrat, 60,000. Democratic majority over all, 10,000; Democratic plurality over LOVETL, 55,000; over BIDWELL 40,000; over PHELPS, 35,000.

LAST Saturday evening Tom FITCH while begging people to buy lots in Jonesville asserted that nothing could prevent Los Angeles from maintaining her position as the great commercial city of Southern California, yet this same bloviator wrote and published the following:

Thus far Southern California has lacked a commercial city. * * * That Santa Monica is to be the future city of Southern California, will be readily conceded after an examination of its many advantages.

An ordinance passed by the Common Council makes it an offense against the peace and dignity of the city to leave unhitched teams standing in the streets. Merchants and others refuse to allow drivers to hitch their teams to awning posts, and there are very few hitching posts to be found. People coming in from the country find themselves in an awkward position. They are fined if they leave their teams unhitched and they are ordered not to hitch them to awning posts. It seems that the only way out of this dilemma is for the Council to order the erection of hitching posts in convenient places for the accommodation of the public.

A Correct Statement.

While hurling anathemas at the Central Pacific Railroad the other evening, Mr. FITCH unintentionally made a strong argument in favor of the Pacific Coast roads being owned and operated by Pacific Coast companies. He said that the most Eastern camp on the Central Pacific road drew its supplies from San Francisco and that the most Western town on the Union Pacific received its merchandise from Omaha or Chicago. This was offered as evidence of discrimination, and if we accept it as such we must admit that it shows a discrimination in favor of ourselves. Suppose the assertion of the speaker is true that all | ple of this city and county. railroads practice this species of discrimination, we see at once that if Tom Scort is the owner and manager discussion of our respective merits in of the Southern Pacific road he will all the walks of life. In conclusion I all the walks of life. discriminate against the trade of the will state that I owe no obligation to West and compel the miners of Arizona to purchase their supplies from Eastern dealers. The Herald has always maintained that if the Western half of the Southern overland railroad was built by a California company we should have it completed in a short fair, neither shall I avoid its consetime and retain the trade of the country through which it passed. We do not ious to get out. care who builds the road; we have no preference or prejudice for or against any company. All we desire is that it shall be built as speedily as possible and that it shall be operated by our own people. Mr. FITCH sustains the HERALD'S position while dealing what he intended should be a terrible blow to the Southern Pacific Railroad.

Something About Fitch.

In opening his appeal for Houghton last Saturday evening Tom FITCH said he was a Republican. He was careful not to say that he had always been a Republican and he knew himself too well to venture the assertion that he should remain a Republican. He has professed all political creeds and apostated as often as he professed. Three years ago we heard him deliver an eloquent speech in Platt's Hall, San Francisco, in support of the Demoeratic nominee for President. A few weeks later he was pouring forth frothy rhetoric in favor of GRANT. He is a slippery "cuss" in everything and in order to give our readers some idea of the man we repeat the following very fair notice of him from the Examiner: The dog has returned to his vomit. Tom Fitch has gone back into the bosom of Radicalism; and we are right glad of it. When the telegraph informed us a few months ago that this unconscionable rogue had made a speech at the meeting of the Manhattan Club in New York announcing his abjuration of the errors of Radicalism, we were dismayed. It was to us an occasion of alarm that such a scalawag should in any manner or for any time be identified with the Democracy. Now we are relieved in mind that he is again consorting with his own kind.

Such a character could not long live in the sorting with his own kind.
Such a character could not long live in the pure atmosphere of Democracy. As he said himself in his speech at Virginia City on Saturday night, "he was never designed for a Democrat." God never created such a soul for communion with the pure spirits of Democracy. Fitch says he has not "sufficient moral elasticity" to be a Democrat. Well, considering the source that is cool. Within considering the source that is cool. Within twelve months this man has changed his politics twice, and not long ago made a speech denouncing the Radicals as the most corrupt denouncing the Radicals as the most corrupt and wicked party that ever existed, so corrupt indeed, that even he could no longer act with them, and he forever renounced connection with them. He says "he hadn't been identified with the Democracy long enough ever to vote their ticket, or strong enough ever to make them a speech." Liars proverbially have short memories, and Tom forgets his speech at the Manhattan Club.

It is hardly just to our readers to waste so much time and speech on so worthless a subject. A man so lost to all sense of honor and decency, is properly beneath our notice.

ject. A man so lost to all sense of honor and decency, is properly beneath our notice. A carpet-bagger whose principals and speech are always for sale to the highest bidder, a political tramp who would change his religion or his politics at a moment's notice, a corrupt carpet-bagger who prostitutes the noblest gifts of imagination and elocution for the paltriest consideration of coin, audaciously avowing the fact and claiming that he is thus "honestly earning a professional fee," rejectavowing the fact and claiming that he is thus "honestly earning a professional fee," rejected and despised by his associates for his lack of moral principle; banished from Missouri, cast out from Nevada, virtually expelled from Utah, refused tolerance in New York, ignored in California; a parish among politicians, no wonder that the decent Radicals of Nevada dread his return as a prodigal as they were delighted at his defection. Who can sound the depths of such a man's infamy, who can describe the sublimity of his assurance, who can measure the fathomless fertility of his audacity, who, but himself, so tility of his audacity, who, but himself, so abounding in tumid rhetoric, can deplot in corresponding colors the matchless villainy of this political acrobat?

For coin or for place he would self himself

For coin or for place he would sell himself to any party, or profess proselytism to any creed, advocate any cause, preach any dogma, proclaim belief with equal facility in Christ, in Buddha, in Mahomed, or in the Unknown God, or fall down and worship the Golden Calf of Nevada.

We may in closing with this charlatan, adopt the language of Charles Phillips in lamenting the fail of a really great man: He commenced his course a stranger by birth and a scholar by charity. He has known no motive but interest, acknowledged no criterion but success, he has worshipped no God but ambition, and with an eastern devotion he has knelt at the shrine of his idolatry. Subsidiary to this, there is no creed that he will not profess, no opinion that he will not promulgate; in the pursuit of office, he at a moment's notice, is ready to become a Mormon or a Mahomedan, a Democrat or a Kadical, a satellite of Sutro or a sycophant of Sharon. Such a medly of contradictions, and tency, were never united in the same character. O, Frailty, thy name is—Fitch.

Rover Convicted. WINFEMUCCA, Nev., July 25.—In the Rover trial Hon. Wm. S. Bonnefield delivered a charge to the jury last night, at 9:30. 'At 10 o'clock they returned a verdict of "guilty as charged." The counsel failed to request the jury as to the forms of the verdict, and no degree being specified, it is quite probable the defense will move an arrest of judgment or apply for a new trial, which will likely be granted. Notwithstanding the excessively hot weather the court room was crowded all day Saturday to hear the argument of counsel. Much feeling has existed in this community as to the supposed guilt of Rover or Mc-Worthy, of complicity in the murder. To-day a brother of the murdered man informed your reporter that he didn't now believe that McWorthy had anything to do with it, which will set at rest his accusation. In 1857 I lived in Cedar City: heard of the emigrant troubles in Cedar City, and came home the day after the company passed through; saw Haight, Higby and Klingen Smith; Haight asked me to take a letter to Pinto creek to the agent there to pacify him and let the emigrants passon; Klingen Smith volunteered to go with me; on the road we met Lee, who asked us where we were going; we told him our mission, and he said he had something to do about that; we delivered our letter to Richard Robinson, agent, and came home next day. They were organized in companies of ten each and one had a baggage wagon. A wagon went down with the emigrants arms in it; then they sang out and we marched behind them, both in single file, for a quarter of a mile; then the word was given to halt; we faced about and the Indians came down whooping and yelling and finished up what we had not killed. Up to that moment we had seen no Indians that day; didn't know where they had disappeared to; after the Indians came, I saw women killed; the Indians attacked only emigrants; no Mormons were killed; I saw dead children then; saw one emigrant get away; the Indians followed caught and killed him; heard of no one being scalped; when all were dead we marched to camp, and the next day went home; afterwards saw the emigrants' cattle on the range near Har-

Borrowing Money.

Borrowing money upon the instalment plan is attended with these advantages: The loan can be repaid in small monthly amounts which include the interest and part of the principal, so that by the expiration of the term it can be all paid without any great inconvenience to the borrower; the rate of interest is generally lower; the expenses of obtaining the money are not so great as in ordinary loans, and if it is borrowed upon good paying property then it often happens that the rents will meet the monthly instalments and in time pay off the debt.

IRWIN AND HAMILTON.

A Grand Ratification Last Night.

The Spirit of Democracy Exciting the People.

Last night at 80'clock a large crowd assembled in front of the St. Charles Hotel, to hear Democracy expounded by those eminent standard-bearers, Governor Irwin and Gen. Jo Hamilton. The meeting was called to order by Mr. A. W. Hutton, Secretary of the Democratic County Central Committee, who presented the name of Gov. John G. Downey for President of the meeting, and who was unanimously elected.

Gov. Downey, on taking the Chair, said he regretted that the Democracy of Los Angeles had had so short a notice of the intended visit of these distinguished champions of Democracy, as they might have been given a better reception. It is rare that Los Angeles has an opportunity to welcome such representative men, and the Democracy delight to do them proper honor. He then announced the list of officers, as follows: Vice Presidents, F. Ganahl, H. K. S. O'Melveny, C. E. Thom, J. M. Bassett, T.A.Sanchez, Wallace Woodworth, F. Machado, D. W. Alexander, S Lazard, T. D. Mott, J. S. Griffin, A. F. Coronel, Judge Sepulveda, M. Morris; Secretary, A. W. Hutton.

These gentlemen appeared and took their seats, while the band favored the crowd with 'Hail Columbia'. President Downey then introduced, "Our Democratic candidate for Governor; a man of integrity and ability, who will address you upon the issues of the day. His forte is not mud-throwing-but statesmanship." Governor Irwin was received with great enthusiasm, and spoke substantially as follows: "It is with extreme pleasure that I come before this great meeting in the Southern part of the State. My friend, Governor Downey, has related the fact that you were not apprised of the intended visit of Gen'l. Hamilton and myself. This eager crowd reminds me that this beautiful city gathers a large congregation to discuss the issues of the country in which even the humblest citizen is interested. I recognize, at the same time, that this compliment is not due to us as individuals, but because the great Democratic party has made us its representatives in this canvass; you come not to hear our addresses, but to hear the voice of the since dropped out of the bloody shirt great Democratic party on the issues now before you. In coming before you to-night we will present the reasons why the Democracy should have the support of the of the State. You have the right to demand that we, your standard-bearers, shall state the reasons for which we ask you to support us rather than the Independent or Republican candidates. We shall recognize the fact that you are intelligent citizens and that you are intelligent citizens and that you have the right to say who shall fill the offices of State. There are now three parties in this State and two great parties in the Nation. The will find sufficient food in a few salient points to show the destiny of the Republican party. We will not touch on the war period. Our views then are can ships. Now, seven years later, there is hardly 25 per cent. of our forof no account. Did the Republican party meet the just expectations of the people? Were their measures best adapted to give peace and Union? It occurs to me to ask such a question is to an-swer it. [From the World July 24th.] The Ancon came into this port, one day ahead of her advertised time. She had a pleasant voyage down, and met with no unusual detention at S. Pedro-the fear of all vessels.

We understand that there is much dissatisfaction at San Rafael at the manner in which the people there are taxed at the custom house on the Tia Juana. It is likely Governor Villa-grana will go to the Capitol to use his influence in having the laws so arranged as to establish a better trade in that direction, as the whole people of Lower California, and indeed thi State also, are concerned in the matter. We do not understand that blame attaches to the gentlemen in the custom house, as they but do their duty in obedience to law; but the custom laws of the Republic are so stringent as to need the change sought for.
